Lynn has been with the firm since its inception in 1996, and has been a legal assistant and paralegal in the Eastside since 1977. Her years of experience in estate planning, probate, corporate, business transactions, and real estate matters have enabled her to develop an ability to draft and review a variety of documents related to these areas of law. Lynn enjoys working with both the attorneys and clients to create a good personal relationship that facilitates a quick response time.

Lynn received her B.A.Ed., cum laude, from Central Washington University in 1974. She has been a registered Legal Assistant for ex parte matters with the King County Bar Association for over 15 years.
