Practice Emphasis

Commercial Litigation

Real Estate and Construction

Creditor and Debtor rights

Mike's practice focuses on commercial litigation, business matters, and bankruptcy. Mike has extensive experience handling civil litigation and appellate matters for his clients. Mike's litigation background includes significant work on all types of real estate matters, including title disputes, construction related questions - including lien issues, and boundary disputes. Mike's business practice includes commercial transactions and employment matters. Although Mike has represented debtors, trustees, and creditors in bankruptcy matters, Mike primarily represents creditors – including trade creditors, non-traditional commercial lenders, and banks - in work outs, receiverships, and bankruptcy cases.
